With Us He's Tops

With sincere appreciation, the Senior Class of 1948 will always remember an instructor on the Haverling Faculty as being outstanding.

It was he who spent many a patient hour teaching us the principles of geometry and algebra.

It was he who unselfishly gave of the few free hours of his busy days to help us successfully put on the Junior Prom.

It was he who was always ready to extend a helping hand to our class and its members.

For these reasons and the true fondness we feel towards "Sam", the Senior Class of 1948 gratefully dedicates this book to:

Bernard F. Wilson

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Hille, Mr. Cheney, Mr. Frazier, Mr. Wightman, Mr. Castle, Mrs. Ormsby, Mrs. Platt, Mr. Shannon, Mr. Ward

We of the Senior Class wish to extend our heartfelt appreciation to the Board of Education for the kindness they have shown us in the past years.

Theirs is often a thankless job for they seldom get any of the credit they so justly deserve, but in the future we hope the pride they feel in us will more than make up for any unpleasantries we may have caused them.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. WIGHTMAN

Superintendent

Our Senior year is passed and yet it will always remain with us in memory. Because you, Mr. Wightman, have done so much to make this, our last year, so enjoyable, we would like to pause a moment to say, "Thank you."

MR. NADEAU

The Senior Class will always remember the wonderful assistance you have given us, Mr. Nadeau. No job has been too small, no request too unimportant for you to handle quickly and cheerfully. Because you have been so considerate always of the needs of others, the Class of 1948 would like to extend to you our most sincere appreciation.

MR. LYON

Those in Junior High School owe a great deal to Mr. Lyon, their principal. Not only does he carry out the office of principal very efficiently but he also teaches seventh and eighth grade Social Studies as well as coaching intramural sports. Mr. Lyon is indeed an essential person in the administration.

CLASS PROPHECY

Miss Austin, in her starched nurse's uniform, ushered into the world famous psychiatrist's office the socially prominent Mrs. Shirley Townsend, wife of Mr. Herbert Townsend, senior partner of the Townsend and Townsend Farm Machinery Company.

"Oh, Doctor Smith, you've got to help me. I have the most horrible dreams!"

The doctor motioned her to lie down and asked her to relate how her troubles began. Turning to his secretary, Miss Carpenter, he signaled her to take notes.

"It all started last summer. I was giving a very large party in honor of Governor Robert Miller. Everything was to be perfect—the wine to come from Connoisseur McDonnell's own cellar, the house to be redecorated by the firm of Downs, Thompson, and Allen. I had engaged Mr. Buckley, the sketch artist, to circulate among the guests and draw their portraits. Also I had contracted Harold von Hagn's celebrated dance band which contains such stars as the Messers Cheney, Schoch, Rehme, and his wonderful vocalist, Miss Higby. Miss Patricia Ames prepared the menu and the food was ordered directly from the Crane and Emerson Wholesale House. It was prepared by the famous chef, Miss Patricia Eaton, at Warner and Chatfield's elite "Chicken House." I had even engaged a bodyguard from the Ferris and Lawrence Gymnasium to protect the guests' jewels. A Mr. Kulikowski, I believe his name was. My social secretaries, Miss Knapp and Miss Vohar, had been careful to invite only the socially prominent . . . . "

"Just a moment," the doctor interrupted, "perhaps if you gave the names of some of your guests it might help us."

"I'll try to remember. Let's see, there was Mr. Bliss, the famous shipyard tycoon, Miss Struk (who, you may recall, designs the exclusive gowns for Hollywood) and her business manager, Mr. Magee. Also I had invited Miss Dyer who searched for and finally discovered the famed method, "How to Grow Tall in Three Easy Lessons." (It is rumored in Louise Abbott's newspaper column that a dissatisfied customer, Miss White, had instructed her lawyer, Mr. House, to file suit against Miss Dyer. It seems Miss White is a member of the popular Ames, Early, White, and Towner dancing team and she felt she needed a little height to balance the quartette, but after taking the three lessons, she lost four inches and had to be billed by the Tierney Advertising Company as the only woman in America who dances on stilts!)

"Also I had invited an old school chum, Miss Edsall, who now teaches Latin at the old Alma Mater, but Eileen couldn't come—she went on a picnic the week before and broke her ankle. Mr. Grover of the Grover Model Agency was there with his two most beautiful models, a Miss McDonnell and a Miss Francis. He intended also to bring Miss Morrell, but she was unexpectedly called to Hollywood for a conference with Mr. Schonleber, who is signing her to play the screen version of Robert Bailey's newest best seller, "Mrs. Murphy's Chowder or Who Dunnit." With Mr. Symonds as her assistant, Miss Patricia Thayer is directing the picture so it's sure to be a success."

"Well to get on with the story. I had engaged three hostesses, Miss Woolever, Miss Young, and Miss Fisk, who had been very highly recommended by the Bates Employment Agency. While serving dinner, Miss Fisk overheard a joke being told by one of the guests and immediately started giggling. She laughed so hard, she dropped her tray on my head and I've had these dreams ever since. At first I went to my private physician, Barbara Lane, but her receptionist, Miss Manwaring, said she was away on vacation at the Pappas Seaside Resort. It was then I decided to consult you."

"My dreams are very weird—I seem to see all my old classmates acting very strangely. I have seen 'Petie' Dixon knitting a sixty foot scarf, Audrey Allen teaching Elsie Bliss English and Hazel Northrup playing leap frog."

"That's the end of my story, doctor, the rest is up to you. What do you prescribe?"

Doctor Smith turned to Miss Carpenter and asked her to bring him the letter from Robert Dyer, Superintendent of Haverling. It contained a record of what the Senior Class of 1948 had become after graduation.

"Your dreams, Mrs. Townsend, are the result of a subconscious desire to know of your old classmates. 'Petie Dixon' isn't knitting a sixty-foot scarf, but she is knitting—for all the little 'Peties' running around the house. Audrey Allen is teaching English, but from a text written by Elsie Bliss. And last, Hazel Northrup isn't playing leap frog, she's teaching tumbling in her gym class."

"So you see, Mrs. Townsend, your only medicine is to return to Bath, but I'm warning you—things will certainly be different!"

CLASS WILL

In a mad moment of glee, having passed our finals, we, the Senior Class of 1948, being of wracked brain and weary body do hereby declare the following to be our Last Will and Testament.

1. To the entire Class of 1949, we leave the unfinished assignments, white admit slips, and lost locker keys needed to become dignified Seniors.
2. To the faculty we leave our sincere appreciation for the countless little things done to make our process of learning so pleasant and our thanks for those assignmentless long weekends.
3. To the next Student Council President, we leave the revised and re-revised constitution Dick Cheney used to help him keep his cherubs in line.
4. To Germaine Dittiacur we leave Natalie Manwaring's pleasing personality and ready smile.
5. To "Mike" Wilson we leave LeRoy Rehme's problems in chemistry, especially the difficult ones.
6. To Arlene Fort we leave Liz Paddock's special telephone line, already well-used, from Painted Post to Bath.
7. To Murray Landsman we leave Joan Higby's place in Sextette. (just to change it a little!)
8. To Chester Bush we leave Harold von Hagn's well beaten path to the music room.
9. To Mary Melynk and Virginia Burdick we leave the giggles of Rebecca Fisk.
10. To Barb Chase we leave the dark hair and bright eyes of Harriett Morrell.
11. To Mary Smith we leave Jeanne Tierney's wit and cooperativeness.
12. To Dot Klock we leave all Jean Carpenter's headaches as chief typist on the Haverlinguist staff and her chair in the typing room barely visible above the piles of "work to be done".
13. To Ray Wilkes we leave Don Chatfield's formula for getting things done quickly and efficiently and also the much peddled bicycle to transport him to school.
14. To Jim Hancock we leave "Walt" Ferris' popularity and basketball skill.
15. To Harry Buckley and "Hardcoal" Billings we leave "Doc" Smith's and "Big John" Kulikowski's prowess on the football field and a set of dented brass knuckles for use against Haverling's opponents.
16. To some lucky cheerleader we leave "Pete" Dixon's position as Captain accompanied by seven unruly damsels.
17. To Marcia Traver we leave Gretchen Towner's position as shadow and "memory" of Miss Wethey.
18. To Lois Burleson we leave Carolyn Austin's quiet friendliness.
19. To Betty Donley we leave Nancy Knapp's love of fun and her athletic ability.
20. To Stinky, Haverling's pet skunk, we leave a new home, snug and safe from molesting students and janitors. May you rest in peace.

CLASS HISTORY

Many moons ago, when we started on the first rung of the ladder of High School, we pledged ourselves to four successful years of hard work in a determined effort to make ours an outstanding class.

Our first step in high school was to elect for our class officers the following: Jack Lawrence, president; Keith Clark, vice-president; Walter Ferris, secretary; Jack Woodbury, treasurer; Harold von Hagn, student council representative; Anne Harder, alternate student council representative; Miss Veazie and Miss Clapp, advisors. Our first dance was a sport dance after a basketball game and we ended a progressive year with a picnic at the Fish Hatchery.

With our second step, we accomplished many feats on our road to success. Our officers for this year were Keith Clark, president; Dick Warner, vice-president; Elaine Allen, secretary; Beverly White, treasurer; Richard Cheney, student council representative; and Jeanne Tierney, alternate student council representative. We chose Miss Clapp and Mr. Wilson to be the advisors of our class. We celebrated Washington's Birthday by holding a dance after the basketball game with C. F. A. We also boosted our class treasury by monthly dues and contributed to the Scoreboard Fund.

As upperclassmen we elected Jack Lawrence, president; Keith Clark, vice-president; Mary Francis, secretary; Elaine Allen, treasurer; LeRoy Griffen, student council representative; and Harriett Morrell, alternate student council representative. Mr. Tucker and Mr. Wilson were our class advisors. In May we had the traditional Junior Prom. Our present to the Senior Class was the Junior-Senior Banquet where Juniors, Seniors, and guests spent a memorable evening together. To end our year we held a rollicking picnic at the Fish Hatchery.

We elected Richard Smith, president; Jack Lawrence, vice-president; Donald Chatfield, treasurer; and Elaine Allen, secretary in our last year at Haverling. Richard Cheney and Walter Ferris were chosen to run on separate tickets for the position of president of student council. When the ballots had been counted, it was found that Dick was the winner. We held the usual number of events with unusual results. Our senior play, "A Date With Judy" drew a record crowd and our Senior Ball with Andy Grillo's orchestra and an undersea motif was a huge success.

Now we have completed the last rung of the ladder to our ultimate goal. Our class has proved to be outstanding in all fields of endeavor and it is our wish that the forth-coming Seniors will have as enjoyable a school life as we have experienced.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors got off to a flying start this year by electing Arthur Emerson, President; Mary Jean Smith, Vice-President; Barbara Chase, Secretary; Clair Ketch, Treasurer; Germaine Dittiacur, Student Council Representative; Angelo Mancini, Alternate Student Council Representative; and Marcia Traver, High Spots Reporter.

We picked two of our best men, Raymond Wilkes and James Hancock to campaign for Vice-President of Student Council. Raymond Wilkes won the position and James Hancock was elected Treasurer of the Council.

In February we gave our class assembly which was enjoyed by all. The Junior Prom was held on May 7, and was a huge success, both financially and socially. Next to the Senior Ball this was the most important dance of the school year.

We made all the arrangements and invited the Seniors to be our guests at the Junior and Senior Banquet, which we held at the Wagner Hotel in June.

We, the Junior Class, wish to thank our faithful advisors, Mr. Freeman and Mr. Wilson, for without their helpful advice and understanding this year could not have been such a memorable one.

Early in the fall, under the leadership of our new president, Richard Cheney, the Student Council straightened out the small flaws in our constitution and paved the way for a very successful year.

Some of the more important things the Council has done this year include giving one social hour each month to the Junior High School and sponsoring class assemblies.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Haverling chapter of the National Honor Society has completed another busy year.

The customary ceremony of the tapping of new members took place early in December when ten outstanding students were welcomed into our chapter.

We increased our treasury by sponsoring a Sock Dance that was held in December. As a value to the school, the National Honor Society this year established a badly needed Lost and Found Department.

The Haverlinguist staff of '48 and '49 has put in many hours to make this book worthy of being long remembered. We hope it may hold a prominent place on your shelf of cherished high school memories.

This year the High Spots staff, headed by Patricia Thayer, their Editor-in-Chief, has established a remarkable record. Under the guidance of Mr. Rock, every month an edition of the newspaper has been published and enjoyed by everyone. The whole school can say "Well done" to a wonderful editor and a cooperative staff.

INTER NOS

In October, the Inter Nos held a supper meeting at the Home Economics House for the purpose of initiating new members. We all enjoyed the strictly Roman Banquet that was held in February when everyone dressed as the ancient Romans and even the food was patterned after those times. Truly it can be said that Inter Nos has had an active and prosperous year.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club this year has been an active organization headed by our president, Therese McDonnell. We sponsored a very successful sport dance after a home basketball game and planned many other activities.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Hebert for his patience and good humor which helped to make this year so pleasant.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club was organized this year under the leadership of our new librarian, Miss Myers.

Our "Jug Dance" after the Painted Post football game was the topic of conversation for a week later because of the enjoyable time we all had.

Between working in the library in our spare time and having discussions on books, new and old, our club has been very active and progressive this year.

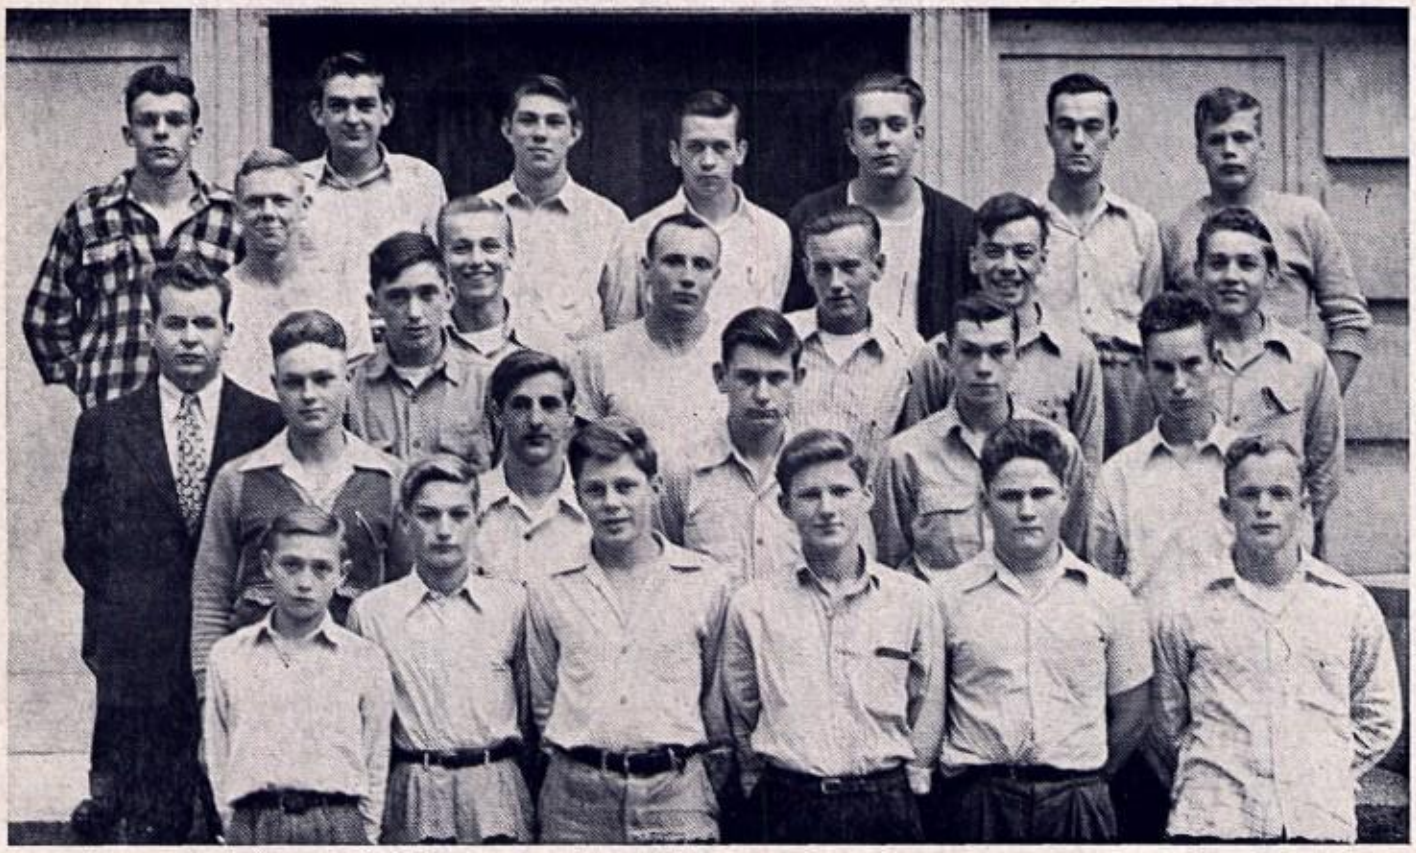
We worked industriously to make lovely Christmas scenes for the large bulletin boards and we also made the Senior Ball posters.

Mrs. Bowes, our advisor, has helped us very much to make our appreciation of art greater.

F. F. A.



The Future Farmers of America organized quickly this year to avoid losing too many meetings. We elected Robert Dyer, President, and Robert Brundage, Vice-President.

We have had a very satisfactory year pursuing our agricultural interests. We also gave an enjoyable dance in the auditorium.

We wish to thank Mr. Kellogg for his help as our advisor and for making this a pleasant year.

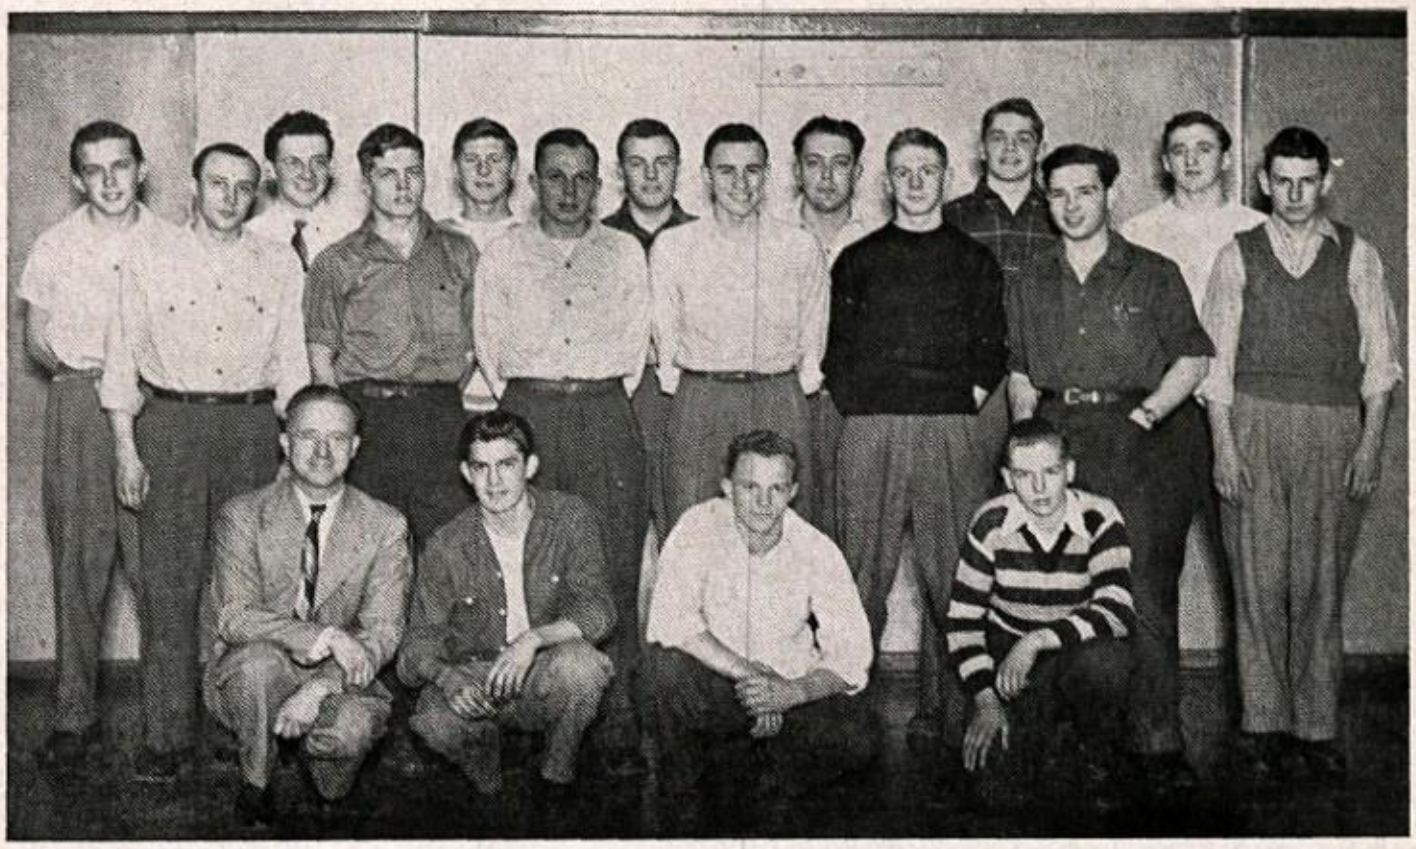
HI-Y

The Haverling Hi-Y, after a late start, has inducted a new group of fellows and is now launched on its most busy season in years.

The meetings are held in the Brotherhood rooms where the boys can brush up on their pool and ping-pong along with their various other activities. Bi-monthly meetings are held and once a month we have a big feed.



First Row: Mr. Moose, Switzer, Dyer, Ketch
Second Row: Townsend, Chatfield, Lawrence, Kemple, Warner, Wilkes, Emerson, Vice-Pres.
Third Row: Cheney, Chap.; Ferris, Pres.; Emerson, Drake, Bush, Rehme, Sec.-Treas.; Hancock

AVIATION CLUB

First Row: A. Kammire, Reed, B. Towner, Van Gelder, Van Dusen, Buckley
Second Row: Brownell, Mr. Morris, G. Osborne, Horner, Georgia, D. von Hagn, Fort, Hough, E. Wightman, I. Cranmer, Wahlig, W. Osborne

The Aviation Club proved to be quite a success this year. After electing David Reed, President and Frank Van Gelder, Vice-President, they settled down to building model airplanes. Members of the club have entered their model airplanes in several contests. Although the club was newly founded this year, they expect to become a permanent organization in Haverling.

BAND

First Row: Kinsman, Odell, Van Dusen, Smith, Vice-Pres.; Cheney, Drum Major; H. von Hagn, Pres.; Lee, Towner, Seligman, Donley, Sec.; Harder, Treas.; Miller
Second Row: Fort, Hughes, Paddock, Shoemaker, Knapp, Morrell, Tierney, Edsall, Ormsby, Yates, D. Castle, D. von Hagn
Third Row: Abbott, Wessells, Robbins, E. Bush, Forrester, J. Eaton, C. Bush, St. Coun.; Schoch, Hille, Wightman, Watkins

This year, for the betterment of the band, we held four rehearsals per week instead of the usual two with the result that we rank with some of the best school bands in the area.

Under the direction of our "Prof" Oldfield we have executed concerts at the "Christmas Festival" and also at the "Spring Music Night." Led by Dick Cheney, our Drum Major, we drilled at all our home football and basketball league games.

Thanks to "Prof" we have had not only a busy but also a very successful year.

ORCHESTRA

"Symphony" is our title for this year. After rehearsing under the baton of "Prof" Oldfield twice a week, we have played in assemblies some new and very nice pieces such as "Rhapsody in Blue". We have taken part not only in assemblies but also in the "Christmas Festival" and in the "Spring Music Night."

We wish to thank Mr. Oldfield for making us toe the line in creating a more precise and active orchestra that makes music sound pleasant to the ear.

First Row: Burns, Gerych, Wood, Tierney, Morrell, Knapp, Cheney
Second Row: Shoemaker, Yates, Edsall, Ormsby, Bush
Third Row: Donley, Schoch, Harder

CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus has learned many new numbers under the supervision of Miss Eaton.

During the holiday season, we presented a "Christmas Festival" which was enjoyed by an auditorium filled with eager listeners. In May we presented a "Spring Music Night."

Everyone has enjoyed the Mixed Chorus this year and we hope that future choruses will be as successful in the years to come.

First Row: S. Kammire, Seligman, J. Eaton, Tierney, Higby, St. Coun.; Abbott, McDonnell, Treas.; White
Second Row: McMahon, Crosson, Paddock, Knapp, Traver, Dittiacur, Stinson, R. Shoemaker, Robinson
Third Row: Cheney, Vice-Pres.; Miss Eaton, P. Shoemaker, A. Kammire, Longwell, Ormsby, Storms
Fourth Row: Wilkes, Pres.; H. von Hagn, Alt. St. Coun.; J. Francis, Woods, Wise, Kellogg, Landsman
Fifth Row: F. Ames, Fritz, Flanagan, Schoch, Bush, Harkness, Klock, Chase, Allen

SEXTETTE

Paddock, Higby, White, Mrs. Hansen, Harder, Donley, Robinson

"We Six" were organized this year with two new members, Elizabeth Paddock and Carol Robinson. They really were an asset to our group.

We've spent a busy year singing in the community and participating in the "Christmas Festival", the "Spring Music Night", Baccalaureate Service, and the Graduation Exercises.

We hope our audiences have enjoyed our performances as much as we have enjoyed singing them.

G. A. A.

First Row: Harder, Treas.; Fisk, Brink, S. Kammire, S. Hunter, Frazier, Seligman, Robinson, Kinsman, Simmons, Abbott, Tierney, St. Coun.
Second Row: A. Allen, Northrup, Bennett, Stevens, Manwaring, P. Ames, McDonnell, Ormsby, Merrill, J. Smith, Thompson, Edsall, E. Allen
Third Row: Wilhelm, Bradley, Wessels, V. Storms, V. Taylor, P. Wood, Odell, Paddock, VanDusen, Sutfin, P. Thayer, T. Storms, Donley, White
Fourth Row: Kellogg, Early, Longwell, Vosburg, J. Eaton, Alt. St. Coun.; Burdick, Bunce, Sanderson, Clark, McMahon, Bowers, Klock
Fifth Row: Bates, Graham, Adams, J. Allen, Cody, Carey, Reed, Adams, Stinson, Newman, R. Shoemaker
Sixth Row: Towner, Chamberlain, Kish, Peterson, M. Stewart, C. Stewart, Miss Bacon, Francis, Knapp, Austin, Morrell, Sec.; M. Ames, G. Towner, P. Shoemaker, B. Lee, J. Thayer, A. Kammire, P. Eaton, Pres.; K. Bowes

The G. A. A. started things correctly by sponsoring, in late September, the first dance of the school year. Under the leadership of Pat Eaton, we augmented our treasury by the sale of "Haverling caps" and by the operation of a refreshment stand at the home basketball games.

Directed by Miss Bacon, the G. A. A. hopes to have many more years as successful as this has been.

CHEERLEADERS

Under the captaincy of "Petie" Dixon, the cheerleaders have gone far this year. They have cheered at every basketball and football game despite the often stormy weather. At their practice sessions they have become so precise in their technique that our student body is proud of them and other schools envious.

Hats off to these girls and their advisor, Miss Bacon.

Fourth Row: Noble, Landsman, Hancock, Grover, Co-Capt.; Ness, Kulikowski, Flanagan, J. Reed, Miller, Coach Witherwax.

The Ramblers enjoyed their most successful season in years when they came through with four wins out of eight tries this year. The Haverling eleven brought about the upset of the year when they defeated a heavily favored Northside squad by a count of 18 to 9. A great deal of credit must be given to Coach Witherwax, who is spending his first year at Haverling; to Jim Hancock, who was one of the outstanding backs in the county; and to "Big John" Kulikowski, who was the mainstay of the Ramblers forward wall.

The scores were as follows:

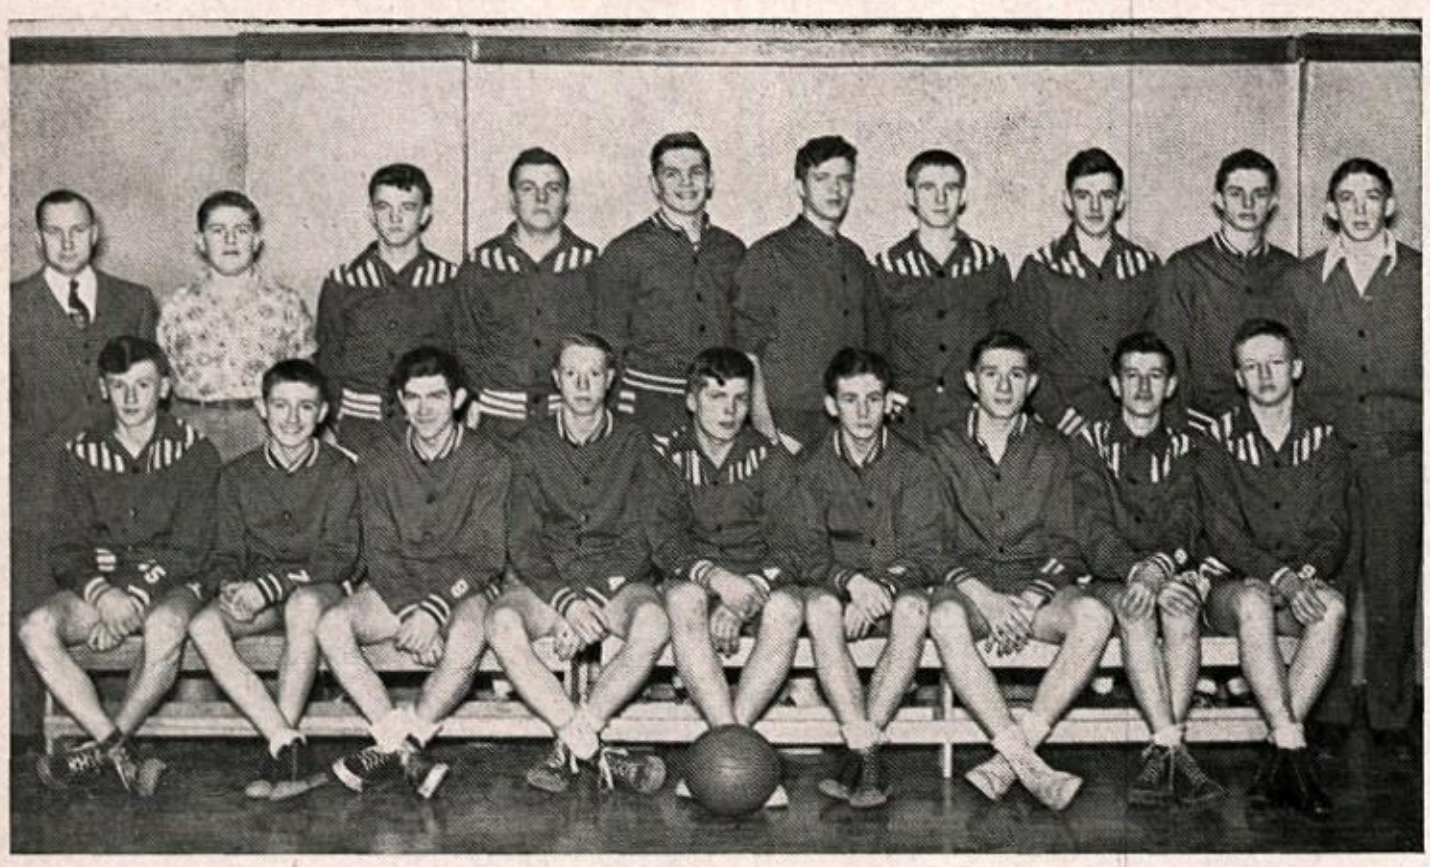
Haverling 7, Bolivar 6
Haverling 0, C. F. A. 40
Haverling 6, Canisteo 0
Haverling 0, Hornell 19
Haverling 28, Watkins Glen 7
Haverling 7, Wellsville 33
Haverling 18, Northside 9
Haverling 0, Painted Post 20

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1947-48 Haverling hoopsters were mostly Sophomores and Juniors. In spite of this, Coach Witherwax, who is spending his first year at Haverling, worked hard and the team showed marked improvement as the year progressed. The team won six of its eighteen games and closed the season with a narrow one point loss to the Northside five on the Corning court. All but two of the varsity will be back next year and then you other teams had better watch out!

First Row: G. Warner, Trumble, Landsmans, Rohollo, Mancini, Fritz, Warner, Miller
Second Row: J. Flanagan, Coach Witherwax, Lawrence, Ferris, Hancock, Muller, Andress, G. Flanagan, Smith, Mgr.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL



Frist Row: French, Williams, Bonsor, Cranmer, Chatfield, Lodge, Stempfle, Wright, Wood
Second Row: Coach Hansen, Eaton, Mgr.; Buckley, Drake, Rehme, Allen, Dyer, Schoch, Hille, Craig, Mgr.

The 1947-48 edition of the Haverling Junior Varsity saw many new faces and a much larger roster than in previous years. With the larger number of inexperienced players it was difficult for Coach Hansen to pick a starting five. After romping over several opponents the team hit a slump and failed to rally until the closing game of the season. It is expected that next year the Junior Varsity will have many veterans plus added church league strength.. Several of this year's Junior Varsity team have developed into excellent material for the Varsity squad next year.

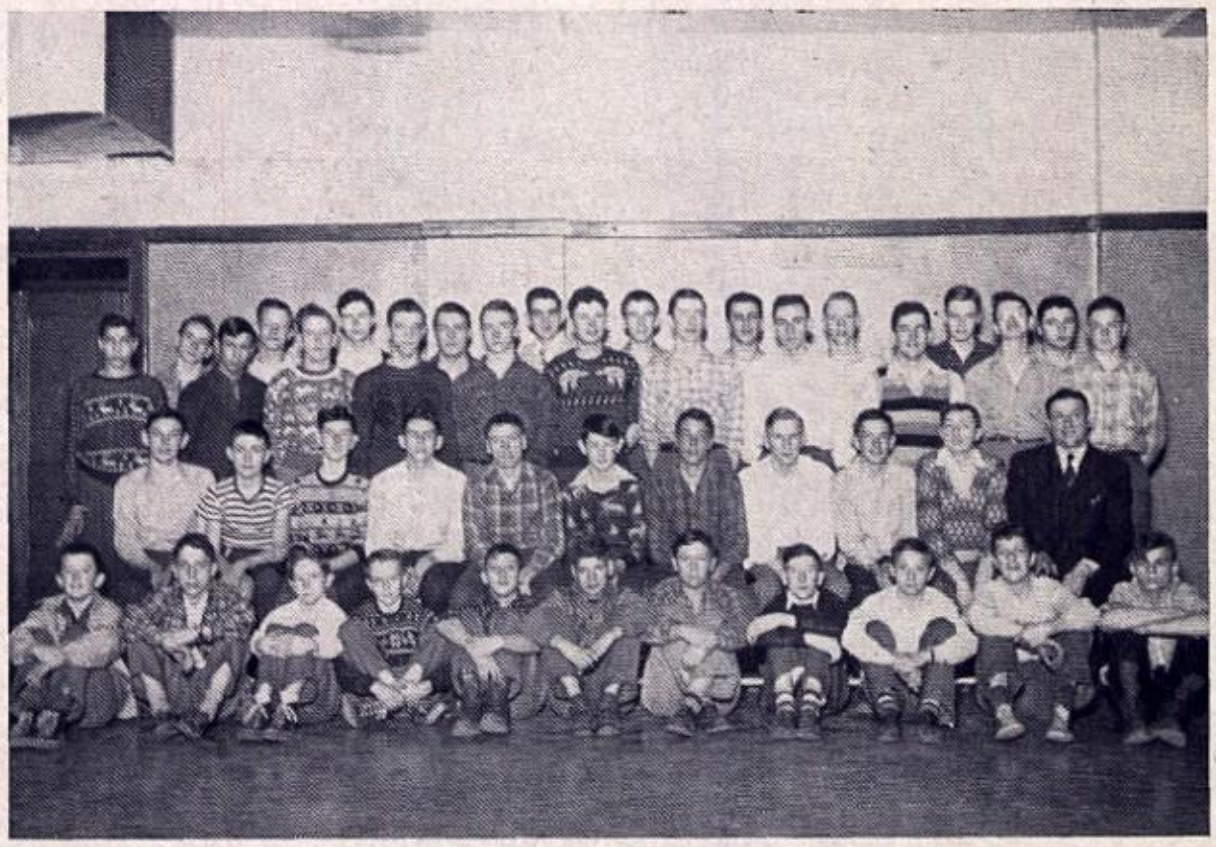
TRACK

First Row: C. Wightman, H. von Hagn, Hille, Muller, W. Schoch, Cheney, Billings
Second Row: Coach Witherwax, Craig, Landsman, French, Hague

There just weren't enough men on the 1947 Track Team. In spite of their lack of numbers, however, the fellows tried hard and gave a good account of themselves in all their meets. Let by the speed merchants Neal Miller and Don French, they piled up their share of points. The French brothers also made the trip to Rochester because of their showing in the County meet. Although Neal and Don will be greatly missed this year, the 1948 squad should give a good account of themselves with such veterans as Harold French, Dick Cheney, Bob Craig, and Bill Schoch returning to the fold.

BASEBALL

The 1947 Baseball season was a wet one. It was very difficult for Coach Lyon to get many practices in due to the weather, and since most of the players were inexperienced, this proved a deciding factor. The roster showed a majority of Juniors and Sophomores, so it is expected that there will be good, experienced players to fill every position this season. The returning lettermen include Brundage, Ferris, Kemple, Hancock, Lawrence, McDonnell, Trumble, and R. Warner.



First Row: E. Kiff, D. Smith, R. Warner, Sanford, Philips, Andrews, G. Hill, Dickinson, D. Brown B. Cranmer, R. Wise
Second Row: Bailey, Williams, Reed, E. Lodge, Wilcox, Randolph, Jann, Brownell, Ackerson, J Francis, Mr. Lyon
Third Row: R. Morrell, Hodge, Magee, H. Buckley, R. Warner, F. McDonnell, Trumble, Kemple Mancini, R. Dolivar, Brundage.
Fourth Row: G. Warner, D. Lawrence, Ness, J. Drake, Muller, S. Dyer, Landsman, Cranmer Bowlby, Grover

HUMOR SNAPSHOTS

The Senior Class of 1948 and the staff of the Haverlinguist wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation to the local merchants, professional people, and business men of the community for their patronage and sponsorship in making this publication possible.

At the same time we honostly believe it is to advantage of the advertiser to employ the Haverlinguist as a medium for advertisement. For unlike most mediums which have only a limited time value, a school yearbook has practically a perpetuity of exposure through endless years. Because it is a chronological record of the school year, time and again it will be referred to in reviewing the past.

To the readers of this school annual, we urge you to patronize these merchants regularly.
